

INDIANA PODIATRIC MEDICAL ASSOCIATION
2011 DOCTORS & ASSISTANTS PROGRAM
Hyatt Regency Indianapolis Hotel - Indianapolis, IN
One S. Capitol Avenue
Indianapolis IN 46204
October 6-9, 2011

SPEAKERS QUALIFICATIONS

Bradley W. Bakotic, DPM, DO, Alpharetta GA, is a Dermatopathologist & Bako Podiatric Pathology Services principle partner. He graduated as valedictorian from the Barry University School of Podiatric Medicine in 1992. He went on to study Osteopathy at the University of New England where he matriculated cum laude. After completing a composite residency in anatomic and clinical pathology at Tufts Medical School and Miami Mount Sinai, he traveled to Manhattan where he gained fellowship training in oncologic surgical pathology and dermatopathology at Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center and the Ackerman Academy of Dermatopathology/Columbia University, respectively. He is currently board-certified in anatomic pathology and clinical pathology, and is the only podiatrist in the nation to hold specialty board certification in dermatopathology.

Kent Beams MD, Bloomington IN, is a graduate of Loma Linda University where he received the Mead Johnson Award for Academic Achievement. He is a Board Certified Phlebologist by the American Board of Phlebology. He is also Board Certified by the American Academy of AntiAging/Regenerative Medicine. Dr. Beams is a member of the Indiana State Medical Association, Monroe County Medical Society, SottoPelle Society and the American College of Phlebology.

Brandon Borer DPM, Indianapolis IN, is the First Year Resident at Westview Hospital in Indianapolis.

Shirley Catoire DPM, Franklin IN, is a graduate of the Ohio College of Podiatric Medicine. She served her residency at the Yale New Haven Hospital/VA CT Health Care System in New Haven, Connecticut. Dr. Catoire ia a member of the American College of Foot andAnkle Surgeons and the American Association for Women Podiatrists. She served as a DPM Student Mentor, Podiatry Political Action Committee Support and Donator and a member of the Podiatry Practice Management Club, Podiatric Association for Diabetics and the Sports Medicine Club.

Emily A. Cook DPM, MPH, Boston MA, is a graduate of the California School of Podiatric Medicine at Samuel Merritt University. She is a member of the American Association for Women Podiatrists. Dr. Cook is qualified in foot and reconstructive refoot/ankle surgery by the American Board of Podiatric Surgery. She is an Instructor in Surgery at Harvard Medical School.

Jeremy J. Cook DPM, MPH, Boston MA, is a graduate of the California School of Podiatric Medicine at Samuel Merritt University.

Patrick A. DeHeer DPM, Franklin IN, is a Magna Cum Laude graduate of the Dr. William M. Scholl College of Podiatric Medicine and completed his residency at Winona Memorial Hospital in Indianapolis. He is a Diplomate of the American Board of Podiatric Surgery. Dr. DeHeer is a Fellow of the American College of Foot and Ankle Surgeons and the American Society of Podiatric Surgeons plus the American College of Foot and Ankle Pediatrics. Dr. DeHeer is a member of the American Academy of Podiatric Sports Medicine and the American Academy of Podiatric Practice Management. Dr. DeHeer serves as Podiatric Consultant to the Indiana Pacers, Indiana Fever and previously served at Butler University. Dr. DeHeer previously served as Surgical Board Review Chairman of the Midwest Podiatry Conference. He is the Founder/President of Wound Care in Haiti. Dr. DeHeer received the Humanitarian of the Year Award in 2011 from the American Podiatric Medical Association. He serves the Indiana Podiatric Medical Association as Continuing Education Chairman and is our President-Elect.

Lawrence A. DiDomenico DPM, Youngstown OH, is a graduate of the Ohio College of Podiatric Medicine. He is certified in foot and reconstructive rearfoot/ankle surgery by the American Board of Podiatric Surgery. Dr. DiDomenico is also certified in podiatric orthotics and medicine by the ABPOPPM.

Nicholas P. Ferro DPM, Indianapolis IN, is a graduate of the Ohio College of Podiatric Medicine. He is the Third Year Resident at St. Vincent's Hospital in Indianapolis.

Gad N. Flaumenhaft DPM, Noblesville IN, is a graduate of the Ohio College of Podiatric Medicine. He served his preceptorship at Meridian Foot Clinic in Indianapolis. Dr. Flaumenhaft is a Diplomate of the American Board of Podiatric Surgery and a Fellow of the American College of Foot and Ankle Surgeons. He is a Past President of the Indiana Podiatric Medical Association. Dr. Flaumenhaft currently serves as Podiatric Representative on the Indiana Medicare Carrier Advisory Committee.

Christopher S. Grandfield DPM, Merrillville, IN is a graduate of the Temple University School of Podiatric Medicine. Dr. Grandfield served his residency at St. Mary's Medical Center in Merrillville. He is a Diplomate of the American Board of Podiatric Surgery and a Fellow of the American College of Foot and Ankle Surgeons. Dr. Grandfield currently serves as First Vice President for the Indiana Podiatric Medical Association.

Tressea Harvey, Podiatric Medical Assistant Certified, New Albany IN, has excelled in podiatric medicine for over 17 years. Tressea is currently the Practice Manager for Foot First Podiatry in Southern Indiana and has been so for the past 17 years. She continues to actively clinically assist as well as administrate a successful multi-location Clinic. Professional interests include Medical Assisting, Practice Management, Marketing and Development. Tressea has been instrumental in cultivating and implementing several different clinic locations to the practice. In addition to Practice Management, Tressea enjoys patient care and clinical responsibilities. She is a passionate patient advocate and has obtained her certification in both Diagnostic Ultrasound and Podiatric Radiology. Tressea is a member of the Indiana Podiatric Medical Assistants. Tressea is also currently serving as the Vice President of the American Society of Podiatric Medical Assistants and also responsible for Corporate Sponsorship. Tressea enjoys lecturing to various Podiatric Medical Assistants throughout the country.

Shawn Hatfield DPM, Indianapolis, IN, is a graduate of the Scholl College of Podiatric Medicine. Upon graduating, he began his training in Chicago IL at St Joseph's Hospital and the North Chicago VA. He is trained extensively in lower extremity reconstruction including deformity correction, trauma reconstruction, diabetic limb salvage and peripheral nerve surgery. Dr. Hatfield has been trained in both pediatric and adult foot and ankle pathologies.

John Kasberg, Indianapolis IN, is President and Co-founder of Genesis Medical located in Indianapolis. He is a Board Member of the Independent Medical Distributors Association.

Wendy K. Kennedy DPM, Terre Haute, IN, is a graduate of the Scholl College of Podiatric Medicine. She served two residencies at Western Pennsylvania Hospital in Pittsburg PA and Westview Hospital in Indianapolis. Dr. Kennedy is currently Secretary-Treasurer of the Association.

Jane A. Koch DPM, Evansville IN, is a graduate of the Scholl College of Podiatric Medicine and completed her residency at the Thorek Hospital and Medical Center in Chicago IL. Dr. Koch is Board Certified by the American Board of Podiatric Surgery. She is a Fellow of the American Society of Podiatric Surgeons. Dr. Koch serves currently as President of the Indiana Podiatric Medical Association.

Thomas Lyman DPM, South Bend, is a Resident at St. Joseph's Regional Center in South Bend.

Michael S. Miller DO, FACOS, FAPWCA, is Board Certified in General Surgery and has practiced full time for the last 16 years as a specialist in Chronic Wound Management. He has Wound Healing Centers in Bedford and Avon and recently added IndyLymphedema, the only free-standing, physician directed lymphedema treatment center in Indiana. He is Vice President of Medical Affairs for Accuro Medical Products of Denver CO. Dr. Miller serves a clinical consultant for several wound casre companies and provdes medico-legal expertise on multiple levels. He was named the American Osteopathic Foundation's 2011 Physician of the Year. He is an author, Advanced Wound Repair Therapies, and an inventor with several patents for mobility devices for impaired patients.

Cassandra Papak DPM, South Bend, is a Resident at St. Joseph's Regional Center in South Bend.

Tanya D. Popper Abell PMAC, Indianapolis, IN, is employed by Dr. Paul Cain.

Medical Protective, Fort Wayne, IN, is a national leader in primary healthcare professional liability coverage and risk solutions for physicians, hospitals, healthcare facilities and other healthcare professionals. As the nation's first provider of healthcare professional liability insurance, Medical Protective has been protecting the assets and reputations of healthcare providers for more than 110 years. Medical Protective is a Berkshire Hathaway business and is the endorsed malpractice insurance carrier of the Indiana Podiatric Medical Association.

Andrew J. Rader DPM, Jasper, IN, is a graduate of the Scholl College of Podiatric Medicine. He served his residency at the University of South Florida, Shriners' Children Hospital and Tampa V.A. Dr. Rader is a Diplomate of the American College of Podiatric Orthopedics and Primary Podiatric Medicine and the American Academy of Wound Management and is certified by the American Professional Wound Care Association. He is a Fellow of the College of Certified Wound Specialists, the American Association of Lower Extremity Peripheral Nerve Surgeons, and American Professional Wound Care Association. Dr. Rader is a Clinical Associate Professor of the Ohio College of Podiatric Medicine, the Scholl College of Podiatric Medicine, the University of Osteopathic Medicine and Health Sciences in Des Moines, IA and is Adjunct Clinical Faculty at the Barry University School of Medicine in the Miami Shores, FL. He currently serves as Immediate Past President of the Indiana Podiatric Medical Association.

Jesse E. Riley DPM, Newburg IN, is a Resident at St. Mary's Medical Center in Evansville.

Richard J. Rolfes MD, Cincinnati, OH, is a graduate of the Ohio State University College of Medicine. He served his residency at the University of Florida in Diagnostic Radiology. His Fellowship training was in Magnetic Resonance Imaging and Nuclear Medicine at The Christ Hospital in Cincinnati. He also has had specialized training in Musculoskeletal (MSK) MRI/Imaging, Subspecialty in Foot & Ankle Imaging and Extensive Experience in Open/Low Field MR Imaging. He is co-author of the book MRI of the Foot & Ankle published in 2002. Dr. Rolfes is the Medical Director of Proscan Imaging in Indianapolis. He also serves as Assistant Clinical Professor of Radiology at the University of Louisville School of Medicine and as Clinical Research Associate at World Care Clinical LLC. Dr. Rolfes is a Diplomate of the American Board of Radiology with Special Competence in Nuclear Medicine.

Richard A. Stanley DPM, Indianapolis, IN, is a graduate of the Scholl College of Podiatric Medicine. He has served as IPMA's Legislative Committee Chairman for several years. Dr. Stanley is Second Vice President of the Association.

Kenneth P. Stumpf DPM, Indianapolis IN, is a graduate of the Scholl College of Podiatric Medicine in Chicago. He is a member of the American College of Foot and Ankle Surgeons and served as Vice President, American Academy of Podiatric Practice Management, American College of Foot and Ankle Pediatrics, American College of Foot and Ankle Orthopedic Medicine - Secretary and the American Academy of Podiatric Sports Medicine. Dr. Stumpf volunteered to work at the Midwest Podiatry Conference and the LaSalle Bank Chicago Marathon.

Jessica R. Taulman DPM, Indianapolis IN, is the Second Year Resident at Westview Osteopathic Hospital in Indianapolis.

Mary Walls, LPN, PRT, PMAC, Bloomington IN, is employed by Dr. Gerry Hash in Bloomington. Ms. Walls serves as Continuing Education Chairperson for the Indiana Podiatric Assistants.

Walter G. Warren DPM, Seymour IN, is a graduate of the Dr. William Scholl College of Podiatric Medicine. Dr. Warren is a Diplomate of the American Board of Podiatric Surgery and the American Board of Podiatric Orthopedics and Primary Podiatric Medicine. He is a Fellow of the American College of Foot and Ankle Surgeons and the American College of Foot and Ankle Orthopedics and Medicine. Dr. Warren is a member of the American Diabetes Association and the American Academy of Podiatric Practice Management. He is a Board Certified Pedorthist by the American Board of Orthotists and Prosthetists. Dr. Warren is a Past President of the Indiana Podiatric Medical Association.

Debbie Williams, Indianapolis IN is General Manager for Allied OSI Labs, which was founded in 1978. The company is the co-founder of the Prescription Foot Orthotic Laboratory Association. Allied OSI Labs is a corporate sponsor of the American Academy of Podiatric Practice Management, Podiatry Institute and supports the Fund for Podiatric Medical Education.

Fredericka A. Wilson DPM, Indianapolis IN, is a graduate of the New York College of Podiatric Medicine. She served her residency at Mount Vernon Hospital in New York.

David A. Yeager DPM, Dixon, IL is a graduate of the Scholl College of Podiatric Medicine and completed his residency at Cambridge Hospital, which is affiliated with Harvard University and surgical residency at Chicago Healthcare System-Westside Division. Dr. Yeager is board certified in foot and reconstructive ankle surgery. He currently serves as Vice President for the Illinois Podiatric Medical Association.